Exhibition Rules Please read carefully

- Maximum Base Size: 36 in. x 28 in. (able to fit through a standard 36" door). Smaller entries are also encouraged and welcome. Entries do not necessarily need to be large in order to be desirable. Jr. Student Maximum Base Size is 12 in. x 12 in.
- Maximum Height: 30 inches (not including base & feet)
- Base Thickness/Material Requirement: The creation must sit on a 3/4 inch base (gingerbread creations are moved several times and must be stable). The base must have four "feet" that raise the base.
- Lighting: Light bulbs or strings of light bulbs may be used. Lights may use low voltage and a transformer. Batteries and/or switches must be easily accessible from the front or side. AA batteries or transformers are preferred.

We are here to help, and want to make sure this is a positive experience. If any of the rules are unclear, or if you would like guidance to ensure your creation is in compliance. Please reach out to the Baker Coordinator before Baker Drop Off Day.

Terms & Conditions

The Gingerbread Jubilee Committee (GBJC) reserves the right to refuse any entry • Failure to comply with the rules listed above may result in disqualification from the contest category (at the discretion of the GBJ Committee) • All entries received after the above designated drop off time (Tuesday 11/14 @ 6pm) will be automatically disqualified from the contest and displayed as "Exhibition" • The Exhibition class will not be judged for cash awards (Please use separate Exhibition Form) • Judging is limited to two entries per person, per category • Entries do not need to be made only with candy or sweets; other edible ingredients may be used • The judges are independent of the GBJC and their decisions are final • GBJ Committee members cannot enter the contest • Entries are a donation to the GBJ and will be sold to benefit the Craterian Theater • Construction materials may be tax deductible as allowable by law - Tax ID: 94- 3137852 • Bakers grant permission to the GBJC to use pictures of their entry and/or themselves for either internal or external use, including print, online media, and television • Entries will be on display at the theater during the Community Tour • At no time does the GBJ guarantee the safety or security of entries nor can the GBJ be held responsible for any damages incurred on or off the theater's property.
